Dear Kevin:

We were very pleased that you were able to work with out student-athletes at Fordham. As you could tell, the group session had nearly all of our student-athletes in attendance, and I have heard only positive feedback from them about the program.

Spending the time with our higher profile athletes in one-on-one sessions really benefitted them throughout the year. They were able to put your instruction to use and have all been enthusiastic about your guidance to them.

We hope you enjoyed your trip to the Bronx, and the time with our athletes as much as we enjoyed our time with you and the MVP team. We would certainly recommend your program to any school that is looking to educate their student-athletes about improving their interview skills.
